

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

JLP:tj
Docket No: 7664-98
24 August 1999

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 24 August 1999. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by BUPERS Memorandum 5420 N130D1/148-99 of 11 August 1999, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director

MEMORANDUM FOR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

Subj: COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS IN THE CASE OF PETTY OFFICER [REDACTED]

Encl: (1) BCNR File # 07664-98 with Microfiche Service Record

1. The following provides comments and recommendations on Petty Officer Frazier's petition.

2. N130 recommends deny [REDACTED] receive an Enlistment Bonus (EB).

[REDACTED] enlisted into the Naval Reserve on 12 December 1978 as a Navy Veteran (NAVET). On 03 September 1982, he reenlisted onto active naval service for a period of 2 years. In his petition [REDACTED] states he was entitled to a bonus for transferring to active duty in the Mess Management (MS) rating [REDACTED] requests the Board for Correction of Naval Records (BCNR) amend his service record to entitle him to an EB in the amount of $20,000.

4. EB is designed to provide an incentive to individuals who enlist for a period of at least four years in a military specialty designated at the time of enlistment as critical. EB is not an entitlement, but a recruiting tool used at the discretion of recruiters and classifiers to entice individuals to enlist in critical skills. Every recruit is not offered nor receives an EB. In accordance with OPNAVNOTE 1130 dated 21 December 1979 (the message in effect at time Petty Officer [REDACTED] enlisted to active duty), recruits volunteering for the MS rating could be offered an EB award level of $1,500, not $20,000. Petty Officer Frazier did not obligate to serve on active duty for at least four years when he reenlisted, therefore, he was not entitled to an EB. Although [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ultimately stayed on active duty beyond that required for EB eligibility, the bonus is only paid
