MEMORANDUM FOR AFBCMR

SUBJECT: Application for Correction of Record [REDACTED]

The applicant requests his Reenlistment Eligibility (RE) code be changed to a favorable code to permit enlistment in the Air National Guard. Member filed a timely request within three years of discovering alleged error.

The applicant was discharged on 30 Jun 89 with an honorable characterization of service after serving four years of active service. The Narrative Reason for Separation is "Expiration Term of Service." He received an RE code of "2Y: First-term, second-term, or career airman whose appointment to NCO status has been denied or vacated."

An AF Form 418, Selective Reenlistment/Noncommissioned Officer Status Consideration, was initiated on 7 Nov 88, denying the applicant reenlistment for refusing to attend Professional Military Education (PME). However, declining PME on its own merit, is not a valid reason for denying reenlistment to first-term airmen. Other factors, such as substandard performance, should also be considered. We advise supervisors and commanders to consider all factors including Airman Performance Reports (APR) ratings reflecting erratic, declining, or substandard performance. In the applicant's case, there is nothing in his record reflecting substandard performance and APR history reflects he received all "9"s.

Based on the above, we recommend the applicant's RE code be changed to "1J." We also recommend the Board void the AF Form 418 since it appears it was erroneously initiated.
