Dear C [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 6 September 2001. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by the Navy Personnel Command dated 14 May 2001, and the advisory opinion furnished by the Naval Reserve Personnel Center dated 1 August 2001 with enclosures, copies of which are attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. The Board was unable to find that you were entitled to additional reserve retirement point credit on the basis of constructive service for your reenlistment within 90 days of completing your first enlistment. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director

Ref: (a) Title 10, U.S. C. 12732
(b) DOD Financial Management Regulation

Encl: (1) BCNR File 1868-01

1. Enclosure (1) is forwarded with the following comments and recommendations:

a. References (a) and (b) do not specifically address retirement point credit for constructive service with regard to non-regular retirement. Per reference (b), constructive service is creditable as service for transfer eligibility and percentage multiple purposes with regard to regular retirement. However, it is not creditable for determining basic pay rate upon which retainer pay is computed.

b. We recommend that this case be forwarded to Naval Reserve Personnel Center (NRPC) N221 as a matter under their cognizance.

2. In view of the above, the following administrative corrections/actions have been taken:

a. Petitioner's DD Form 214N for the period covering 30 October 1967 through 29 July 1971 was corrected to indicate 30 October 1967 as the date of entry to active duty and 03 years, 09 months, 00 days as the net service this period.

b. Petitioner's DD Form 214N for the period covering 30 July 1971 through 29 July 1980 was corrected to indicate 03 years, 09 months, 00 days for total prior active service.

Subj: UTC [REDACTED], USNR, [REDACTED]

c. Petitioner's participation record was corrected to reflect 3 years, 09 months, 00 days of qualifying service for the period covering 30 October 1967 through 29 July 1971.
